

Psyc.E.In. MOOC 2

Unit 6

1.2 Leadership in emergency references

To know more:

- A Guide to Managing Stress in Crisis Response Professions U.S. Department of Health and Human Service. 2005.
- Bisson, J., & Tavakoly, B. (2008). The Tents Guideline for psychosocial care following disasters and major incident.
- Fema, Leadership in emergencies toolkit
- Martins, J. C. A., de Sousa, A. C. V., Abrantes, A. R. D., da Silva Pinto, C. S., de Almeida Gomes, C. I., Martins, D. J. O., ... & Fernandes, M. I. D. (2018). Communication and leadership in emergency situations: Systematic literature review and recommendations for practice.
- McCabe, L., & Everly, G. (2007). An Evidence-Informed Model of Human Resistance, Resilience, and Recovery: The Johns Hopkins' Outcome-Driven Paradigm for Disaster Mental Health Services.
- Young, Bruce H., et al. (1998). Disaster Mental Health Services: a Guidebook for Clinicians and Administrators. National Center for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder.
- Zara, A. (2020). Leadership in times of crisis Psychologists' research and expertise can help leaders communicate clearly and support their communities through the pandemic.