

Toolkit 2 - Learning Unit 4 Post intervention

Activity 4b Respect for the autonomy of the client – some more developing questions

Education

1. Is the language used by all in the room able to show she/he is valued?
2. Do my language and my attitude demonstrate that I respect this person, her/his identity and rights?
3. Do I value the client when I interact with her/him?
4. Do I know the appropriate terms to use when I work with a client who has a disability and to talk of their disability?
